Ward Teachers Banquetted.

At the home of Bishop A. R. Capener Wednesday night, the teachers of the Garland ward and a few invited guests were the recipients of a very pleasant social and supper. Besides the ward teachers and their wives and sweethearts, there were present the state presidency, the ward bishopric and other members of the ward associations.

The following program was carried out:

Singing. Prayer by Chas. Munns. Singing. Remarks by Prest. Joseph Jensen. 1910 labor report of ward teachers read by Bishop Capener. Comic song by Jos. H. Kirkham. Experiences of ward teachers by Sanford Bingham. Trio by Mr and Mrs. D C Chapman and Jos. H. Kirkham. Remarks by Thos. E. Seerrest. Solo by Chas. Wood. Remarks by Laura S. Rice, D. B. Foulger and Thos. E. King. Violin solo by Jos. H. Kirkham. After the closing exercises delicious refreshments were served. The evening was most pleasantly spent and everybody returned home rejoicing.

Benefit Ball

A grand ball will be given at the Garland hall tonight for the benefit of Meredith Rogers who leaves Salt Lake December 7th to perform missionary labors in the eastern states. Everybody is cordially invited to turn out and help swell the purse.

Kicked By a Horse.

The 4-year old child of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hall of Garland North was severely kicked by a horse Tuesday of this week, the blow from the horse's foot crushing the outer plate of the skull. The child is favorably recovering, but the accident was a close call for the little fellow.

Married in Malad.

Monday of last week Miss Mina Petersen, daughter of N. A. Petersen of this city, and Geo. E. Daly, of Stone, Idaho, were united in marriage in the city of Malad. Last Saturday the young couple tendered their many friends a grand wedding dance at Stone, Idaho. They will make their home in Stone. Congratulations.

Sustains Broken Leg.

Willie Olsen of Bingham, son of Jos. R. Olsen, the newly elected county sheriff, sustained a broken leg Wednesday morning. He was riding a horse near R. D. Crompton's place and the animal slipped and fell upon him, breaking his leg below the knee. Dr. Rich set the broken bones and he is on the improve.

Prof. Zaydah Amuses People.

Prof. Zaydah, the great hypnotist, human magnet and mind reader, gave the citizens of Garland and vicinity some pleasing and entertaining demonstrations of mind reading on the streets and at the opera house Tuesday and Wednesday. He made the blind-fold drive Tuesday, located the hidden knife and gave the people a pleasant entertainment by playing ball blind-folded on the streets Tuesday. In the evening he gave a fine entertainment at the hall and caused a bunch of factory boys to cut up all kinds of pranks. Wednesday afternoon he again amused the people by locating a hidden pin and a book, and gave Marshal Lillywhite the opportunity of trying to raise him from the ground. At the hall Wednesday night another big crowd witnessed his feats of mental strength and were highly entertained. Some people pronounce these mind readers as "fakes," but we are inclined to believe that they possess the power of reading minds just as easy as we would read an open book. Be that as it may, his demonstrations gave good satisfaction as pleased most everybody who witnessed them.

Town Board.

A special session of the Garland Town Board was held at the town hall Tuesday night of this week. All members present except Trustee Edwards. Matter in relation to advertising the town in the Xmas edition of the Deseret News discussed and it was decided not to do any advertising this year.

A communication and resolution from City Recorder B. S. Rives of Salt Lake, requesting the Town Board to do all in its power to create a public sentiment in regard to reducing the price of coal, was read and discussed and the clerk instructed to answer same advising that everything would be done to aid the cause.

The resolution is as follows:

RESOLVED—That the City Attorney is hereby requested and instructed, in behalf of Salt Lake City, to advise with the Secretary of State and Attorney General in regard to the combination which has brought about the recent rise in the price of coal, and if said combination is believed to be illegal, to urge said officials to take action to dissolve such combination and punish the members thereof, as our state law provides.

Presented to and adopted by the City Council of Salt Lake City, Utah, November 21st, 1910, and approved by His Honor, J. S. Bransford, Mayor, November 22nd, 1910.

The justice's and marshal's report for October accepted.

The ordinance committee reported that they were ready to present ordinance relative to closing saloon and billiard hall at an earlier hour and the matter will be taken up at the regular session next Tuesday.

Marshal instructed to communicate with City Attorney J. D. Call and make arrangements to proceed against poll tax delinquents for 1910.

Some other minor matters were discussed.

The Mass Convention.

One of the largest bodies of tax payers and citizens turned out last Friday afternoon to attend the non-partisan mass convention for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Board of Education, that has ever attended a similar convention.

Member John W. Peters called the meeting to order and was elected chairman of the same.

Nominations were then in order, and B. C. Call made a speech naming Oleen N. Stohl. He was followed by R. M. Jeppson who named Frank W. Fishburn. Dr. J. D. Harding named Jesse W. Hoopes, who immediately secured the floor, and asked that his name be withdrawn, as he was not a candidate, which was done.

The ballot gave Fishburn 107 and Stohl 102. The nomination was then made unanimous.—Box Elder News.

Funeral Services.

Impressive funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the tabernacle over the remains of Sussanah P. Boothe, that session of the Quarterly conference being given over to that purpose. The stand was draped in white, and garlands of flowers were hung about, betokening the purity of life of the deceased and the esteem in which she was held.

Bishop Geo. W. Watkins presided. The hymns sung were "When first the glorious light of truth, etc.," "Resting Now," and "Lead Kindly Light." The speakers were Bishop Watkins, Lewis Boothe, Sisters Cannon and Farnsworth of the general Board of Relief Society, who had been specially appointed to attend the services, Pres. C. W. Penrose, Emelia D. Mansen, Mary Harding, Pres. Oleen N. Stohl and Elder F. W. Fishburn. The eulogies spoken were beautiful and true, and contained words of comfort, encouragement and doctrine pertaining to life eternal. The prayers were offered by Elders William Horsley and L. A. Snow, respectively.

The remains were tenderly laid at rest in the cemetery, to await the call of the trumpet to come forth and mingle with the just.—Box Elder News.

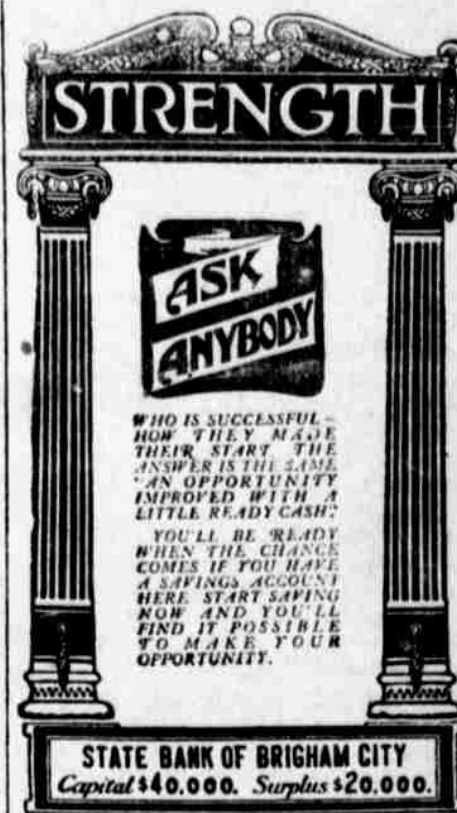

The play at the opera house Wednesday evening, Dec. 7th, is brim full of catchy music. It

Sunday Services.

Last Sunday's services were presided over by Bishop A. R. Capener. Singing by the choir "For the Strength of the Hills, We Bless Thee." Prayer by Peter Boss. Singing, "Lord Thou Hearest Me When I Pray. Sacrament administered by Elders Matthew McMurtrie and Cephus Anderson. Prof. Giles of Malad rendered a very pleasing organ solo. Neils Nielson and family, Almira H. Orgill, Fred L. and Robert Coxy and James W. George and family were accepted as members of the ward. The speakers were Prof. Giles Felix D. Baid and Wm. King. Singing, "Come O Thou King of Kings." Benediction by George Henrie. Attendance 121.

L. W. PRESTON,
Ward Clerk.
